LITURGY OF THE WORD

First Reading

(1 Corinthians 7:25-31) (Seated)

A Reading from the First Letter of St. Paul to the Corinthians

Brothers and sisters: In regard to virgins, I have no commandment from the Lord, but I give my opinion as one who by the Lord's mercy is trustworthy. So this is what I think best because of the present distress: that it is a good thing for a person to remain as he is. Are you bound to a wife? Do not seek a separation. Are you free of a wife? Then do not look for a wife. If you marry, however, you do not sin, nor does an unmarried woman sin if she marries; but such people will experience affliction in their earthly life, and I would like to spare you that.

I tell you, brothers, the time is running out. From now on, let those having wives act as not having them, those weeping as not weeping, those rejoicing as not rejoicing, those buying as not owning, those using the world as not using it fully. For the world in its present form is passing away.

L — Word of the Lord.

C — Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

(Psalm 45:11-12, 14-15, 16-17)

R — Listen to me, daughter; see and bend your ear.

1. Hear, O daughter, and see; turn your ear, forget your people and your father's house. So shall the king desire your beauty; for he is your lord, and you must worship him. (R)

2. All glorious is the king's daughter as she enters; her raiment is threaded with spun gold. In embroidered apparel she is borne in to the king; behind her the virgins of her train are brought to you. (R)

3. They are borne in with gladness and joy; they enter the palace of the king. The place of your fathers your sons shall have; you shall make them princes through all the land. (R)

Acclamation (Lk 6:23ab) (Stand)

(Said when the Acclamation is not sung)

Alleluia, alleluia. Rejoice and leap for joy! Your reward will be great in heaven. Alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel

(Luke 6:20-26)

P — The Lord be with you.

C — And with your spirit.

P — A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke.

C — Glory to you, O Lord.

Raising his eyes toward his disciples Jesus said: "Blessed are you who are poor, for the Kingdom of God is yours. Blessed are you who are now hungry, for you will be satisfied. Blessed are you who are now weeping, for you will laugh. Blessed are you when people hate you, and when they exclude and insult you, and denounce your name as evil on account of the Son of Man. Rejoice and leap for joy on that day! Behold, your reward will be great in heaven. For their ancestors treated the prophets in the same way. But woe to you who are rich, for you have received your consolation. But woe to you who are filled now, for you will be hungry. Woe to you who laugh now, for you will grieve and weep. Woe to you when all speak well of you, for their ancestors treated the false prophets in this way."

P — The Gospel of the Lord.

C — Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Homily (Seated)

Prayer of the Faithful

P — Full of confidence, let us pray to God the Father whom we adore in this Eucharist. In every petition, we say:

3. For our brothers and sisters who are experiencing difficulties, trials and sickness, may their prayers be heard and that they may always hope for the Lord who gives us comfort. Let us pray to the Lord: (R)
4. For all of us present in this Mass, the donors and sponsors, may all of us receive the necessary grace that we may worthily share in Christ's mission as priest. Let us pray to the Lord: (R)

Preface

The victory of the glorious Cross

P — The Lord be with you.

C — And with your spirit.

P — Lift up your hearts.

C — We lift them up to the Lord.

P — Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

C — It is right and just.

It is truly right and just, our duty and our salvation, always and everywhere to give you thanks, Lord, holy Father, almighty and eternal God.:

For you placed the salvation of the human race on the wood of the Cross, so that, where death arose, life might again spring forth and the evil one, who conquered on a tree, might likewise on a tree be conquered, through Christ our Lord.

Through him the Angels praise your majesty, Dominions adore and Powers tremble before you. Heaven and the Virtues of heaven and the blessed Seraphim worship together with exultation. May our voices, we pray, join with theirs in humble praise, as we acclaim:

All — Holy, Holy, Holy Lord God of hosts. Heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

Eucharistic Prayer (Kneel)

P — Mystery of Faith.

C — We proclaim your Death, O Lord, and profess your Resurrection until you come again.

P — Through him, and with him, and in him, O God, almighty Father, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all glory and honor is yours, for ever and ever.

C — Amen.

P — Deliver us, Lord, we pray, from every evil, graciously grant peace in our days, that, by the help of your mercy, we may be always free from sin and safe from all distress, as we await the blessed hope and the coming of our Savior, Jesus Christ.

C — For the kingdom, the power and the glory are yours now and for ever.

P — Lord Jesus Christ, who said to your Apostles: Peace I leave you, my peace I give you, look not on our sins, but on the faith of your Church, and graciously grant her peace and unity in accordance with your will. Who live and reign for ever and ever.

Prayer to the Divino Rostro

All — O Jesus, in your bitter Passion you became a man of sorrow. In your disfigured Face I see your infinite love. I am consumed with the desire to love you and make you love by all men. I venerate your Holy Face because it is the human expression of the Face of the Father. The tears in your eyes are like pearls which I desire to offer to God in expiation of my sins and the spiritual salvation of sinners. O Jesus, your adorable Face ravishes my heart.
